

Expanded Savings Program Available for Commercial, Medicare, and Uninsured Patients

Sanofi believes that, regardless of insurance status or income level, all patients should have access to affordable insulin. To support that goal, Sanofi offers multiple programs to improve patient affordability and reduce the out-of-pocket costs of insulin.

Support Regardless of Insurance Status¹⁻⁴

Insulins Valyou Savings Program^{*}

The program launched in 2018, first created for people without health insurance, will be available to all Americans on January 1, 2026 regardless of insurance status, including those with commercial insurance or Medicare

- All patients are eligible to buy 1 or multiple of the following Sanofi insulins for a fixed monthly price of $35 per 30-day supply—regardless of the number of pens or units prescribed—when filled at the same time, with the same savings card:
 - Admelog[®] (insulin lispro) injection 100 Units/mL
 - Apidra[®] (insulin glulisine) injection 100 Units/mL
 - Lantus[®] (insulin glargine) injection 100 Units/mL
 - Merilog[™] (insulin aspart-szjj) injection 100 Units/mL
 - Toujeo[®] (insulin glargine) injection 300 Units/mL
- In 2024, this program was used nearly 102,988 times and has saved uninsured patients more than 25.7 million dollars

Support for Commercial Patients^{1,3,5,6}

Co-Pay Assistance Programs[†]

Assistance for patients with commercial insurance

- 100% of commercially insured patients are eligible for co-pay assistance programs, regardless of income or insurance plan design
- Commercially insured patients pay no more than $35 per 30-day supply—regardless of the number of pens or units prescribed—of Lantus[®], Toujeo[®], Merilog[™], Admelog[®], or Apidra[®] with the use of their savings card
- The co-pay assistance programs were used more than 2.3 million times and saved commercially insured patients more than 1.5 billion dollars on their Sanofi insulins in 2024

Sanofi Patient Connection[®]

- A program designed to help patients meeting certain eligibility requirements get access to the medications and resources needed at no cost
- The patient assistance component has provided 144,221 qualified low- and middle-income patients with free medicine⁶

Sanofi also provides live support specialists, who patients can call at 1-888-847-4877 to answer questions.

Sanofi Is Committed to Patients and Strives to Improve Patient Access to Sanofi Products

As a global healthcare leader, Sanofi has a long-standing commitment to promote healthcare systems that make Sanofi's treatments accessible and affordable to patients in need.

Sanofi recognizes the need to price its medicines transparently and according to their value while contributing to broader solutions that improve patient outcomes and support affordability within the U.S. healthcare system.

Sanofi's Pricing Principles: Advancing Responsible Leadership⁷

Clear Rationale for Pricing at the launch of a new medicine

A rigorous and structured process that includes consultation with external stakeholders and consideration of multiple factors

Reporting of U.S. Pricing Actions on our medicines over time

Preserving the sustainability of the healthcare system and limiting our contribution to U.S. healthcare spending growth, Sanofi's guiding principle is to adhere to a level consistent with our approach to responsible pricing

Continued Transparency in the U.S. around our pricing decisions

A policy that reflects Sanofi's desire to help its stakeholders better understand our pricing decisions

These principles are examples of Sanofi's commitment to patient access and affordability, a sustainable healthcare system, and continued transparency in its pricing actions.
